Gonsalves, John, a native of the Azore Islands, died at Providence, in the 81st year of his age. He left his native land at an early age and resided at Martha's Vineyard. At the commencement of the Revolution ~~he~~ he entered the naval service of the U.S. and was quarter gunner on board the Providence frigate when she carried the late Governor Gore, as special charge of despatches to Dr. Franklin, then residing in Paris. He was afterwards in the land service, and was wounded in the affair at Providence Island (Sept. 25).
